Foreign University Cooperative Agreement
Student and Researcher Dormitory Contract

I, _____, having come from the following university, _____, will begin to study and/or do research from today onwards at National Taichung University of Science and Technology (hereinafter known as “NTCUST”) in _____ studies. NTCUST will, in accordance with the cooperative agreement, provide school dormitory housing for the student. If afterwards the student decides to move out of the dormitory on his or her own accord in the middle of their studies or research, the individual will be responsible for his or her own financial needs and safety during this period. If any off-campus housing disputes arise, NTCUST will provide assistance, but will not be held responsible for any outstanding issues. This contract provides as acknowledgement to the above conditions.
